

READY AND WAITING. Eighth grader Brittany Foster patiently awaits the right pitch. This year all the SCISA schools switched to fast pitch softball to make the game more challenging and exciting.

HUDDLE UP. After finishing the season with a disappointing loss to Holly Hill in the state playoffs, the coaches and players huddle together one last time to close the season. Wait til next year!

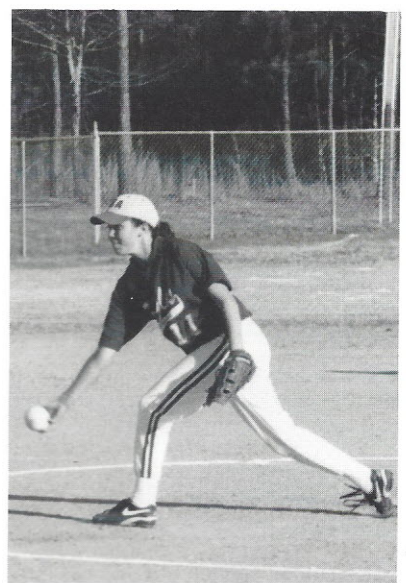

GIMME A HUG. Seniors Frances Ladd and Jennifer Atkerson give each other support as they end their RWA softball career. The three seniors and their parents were honored during the final home game.

BAST OFF. Coach Herb Rentz gives David Patrick the sign and encouragement to steal second as both watch the play at the plate closely. Stealing and sliding made the fast pitch game more fun.

BATTER UP. Sophomore second baseman Jenni Caldwell steps up to the plate with determination to get a hit. Varying in speed from pitcher to pitcher, putting the ball in play was a challenge.

WINDUP WENDY. Junior Wendy Gwynn concentrates on the catcher's mitt as she sets to release the ball. She and a few younger players attended fast pitch clinics to learn new pitching techniques.
