"It's not if you win or lose ...

... it's how many people you impressed." — Ryan Klinger
 ... but, it is." — Kyle Stokes
 ... it just depends on when you foul out." — Russ Brown
 ... but if you gave 110%." — Philip Wilkins
 ... it's how many girls you get and how good you look!" — Locke Frazier
 ... it's what you do after the game." — Kris Klaus
 ... it's if you grade out above 85 or not." — Josh Walters
 ... it's how you look in the process." — Jae Mattox
 ... it's where you eat afterwards." — Willy Pope
 ... but how hard you try!" — Coleman Startzman
 ... it's how much class you show when you do." — Brandon Rast

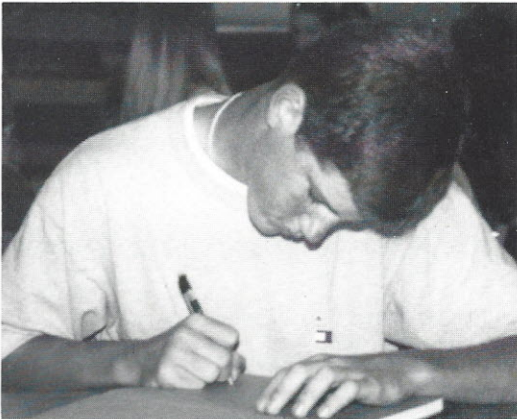

YIKES! After a tiresome basketball game junior Locke Frazier spikes his hair and shows off his wild side. Even though Locke had a rough hair day, he still wears a smile.

SHOW AND TELL. Some juniors show off their new class rings to the camera. Part of the fun in receiving class rings was getting to show them off to one another.

YEARS OF MEMORIES. As Willy Pope signs a friend's yearbook he reminisces memories of the past year. The yearbook signing party is an annual occurrence and a great time for students to get together and view the newly published books.

WHAT'S THAT SMELL? During Mrs. Monteith's U.S. History class Reid Patrick gets a kick out of Philip Wilkins's gas mask. Philip knows that everyone can use a laugh every once in awhile, especially during class.
