◀ GROWING EXPERIENCE. In Mrs. Allen’s science class Blair Clarkson examines a grow light that the freshmen constructed. The 7th graders look forward to conducting experiments like these in the future.

➔ WORKING HARD! Lindsey Hamilton concentrates on her work while Blair Clarkson is lost in thought. These seventh graders know that hard work pays off in the end.

▶ WHAT CAME FIRST — THE CHICKEN OR THE EGG? Adam Williamson is hard at work labeling his egg during one of the many experiments in his science class. All the 7th graders enjoyed spending time in the lab.

◀ SHAKE IT UP! Meredith Brown, Caroline Ogburn, Ashley Mills, and Rebecca Poston enthusiastically cheer for the Eagles during the Homecoming game. These girls always showed their school spirit on Fridays.
