"Life is like a box of ...

... people because you will never know when one will sit on you." — Chuck Carmack
... candy because candy is delicious and I eat it all the time." — Mikey Bunting
... matches because you never know when you will get burned." — Willam Ladd
... mysteries because you never know what will happen." — Amber Nichols
... giggles because everybody makes me laugh." — Lea Allen
... shoes because you never know where life will lead you." — Rebekah Harkins
... cereal because you never know what surprise you may get." — Brantley Marthers
... pins because in life you are poked." — Rachel Stuck

BACK IN THE SADDLE ... Christine, Martin, April, and Trevor are hard at work during the opening week of school. This class was excited to get back to school to share their summer stories.

SCHOOL DAZE. After an active P.E. class, these fourth graders pose for the camera outside their classrooms. They always looked forward to getting a break from the books to play outside.
