

Lindsay Timms
Zachary Timms
Samantha Truesdale
Amanda Wilkes
Grace Wilkins

WHERE ARE MY EARPLUGS?? 1st grade teachers and students cover their ears as loud noises are made during the pep rally. These noise-making contests awarded the loudest class with the Spirit Stick.

An Apple A Day Keeps ...

... "you healthy." — Chelsey Monteith
... "the dinosaurs away." — Kelly Cooper
... "the dentist away." — Kelsey Ray
... "the cavities away." — Michael Sanders
... "the dentist away, but my dad might not like this answer." — Grace Wilkins
... "the orthodontist away." — Caroline Bryson
... "you healthy and strong." — Amanda Wilkes
... "you healthy and fun." — Ashley Brazell
... "your teeth clean and healthy." — Maggie Castles
... "the doctor away for good and he'll never come back." — Lauren Morris
... "you strong because it is fruit and juice." — Amberlyn Marthers
... "you hungry." — Kori Ann Strausbaugh
... "you hyper, makes you wild, and makes you act funny." — Edie McDonald
... "you silly." — Drew Maass

HEY, LOOK AT ME NOW! Mackenzie entertains the audience in his own style as one of the animals of the manger. Traditionally the first graders dress and act the parts of the first nativity.

COLORIFIC! Grace and Buchanan, along with the rest of their classmates, enjoy coloring during the first day of school. This was a good way for students to express themselves and to have fun, too.