

Homecoming 1998

The cold night of October 2, 1998 was a magical evening for students at Richard Winn. Not only did the football team defeat its rival, Cardinal Newman, but two girls were also crowned as Homecoming royalty. Senior Alison Davis, who was sponsored by Brent Branham, was named Homecoming Queen as the result of a student body vote. She was crowned by '97 Queen Lindsey Bonds and escorted by her father Bill Davis. Chosen by the football team, sophomore Jenni Caldwell, who was sponsored by Justin Wilson, was named Football Sweetheart. Jenni was escorted by her father Johnny Caldwell and crowned by '97 Sweetheart Brantlee Stephenson. Following their crowning, the girls were taken for a ride around the football field in a new convertible. Sponsored by the Senior class, this year's festivities made Homecoming '98 an unforgettable night.

