

What was the best part about Homecoming?

"The pep rally — Jae and his teeth made it very interesting!" — Maribeth Coleman
 "The best part about homecoming was that we beat Cardinal Newman. It was also fun getting all dressed up and being a part of it." — Jenni Caldwell
 "Being in the Homecoming Court my senior year was very special. But it was sad because I knew it was my last Homecoming at RWA." — Katherine Brown
 "I really enjoyed just being a part of the Homecoming festivities. It was exciting to be in the Homecoming Court for the first time and beat our biggest rival, Cardinal Newman!" — Wendy Gwynn
 "I liked the whole week because excitement was building up in all the students for the "big game." — Blair Feaster
 "My favorite part about homecoming was just being able to participate. It was very meaningful because I got to be with all of my classmates for our last opportunity to be in the Homecoming Court." — Alison Davis

SAY CHEESE ... All decked out in their dressy clothes, crown bearers Andy Taylor and Brooke Smith hold hands and pose for a picture. Andy and Brooke were chosen out of the kindergarten classes by the seniors to carry the crowns for the new queen and sweetheart.

PRETTY MAIDENS ALL IN A ROW. Following the pep rally, all the Homecoming contestants pause for a group picture. This was one of the largest number of girls sponsoring the junior and senior football players to vie for the Homecoming titles.

DOUBLEMINT TWINS! Dressed in identical outfits, junior Reid Patrick and senior Frances Ladd appear to be dressed for Twin Day. Both girls showed good taste and good-naturedly made the most out of the mistake.

READY & WAITING ... Former Homecoming Queen Lindsey Bonds and former Sweetheart Brantlee Stephenson prepare to crown their successors. Meanwhile all eighteen participants wait anxiously to see who will be the new winners.
