

KICKIN' IT. Senior punter for the NOODLES, Baetti Smith punts the ball down field. Baetti, along with all the other players, enjoyed trying different positions on offense and defense despite the many bumps and bruises received in the rough play.

JUNIOR CHEERLEADERS. Front row (L-R): Heather Gilbert, Amanda Gilbert, Brooke Smith, Jenna Burroughs, Meagan Roberts. Second row: Brock Sherrod, Sallie Watford, Hope Coleman, Sarah Brown, Caroline McMeekin, Kasey Parris. Third row: Emily Rosborough, Kristen Croxton, Ashley Brazell, Candace Walters, Amanda Wilkes, Caroline Bryson. Fourth row: Lauren Morris, Lauren Pendergrass, Grayson Caulder, Kayla Branham, Erica Douglas. Fifth row: Taylor Roberts, Kristin Croxton, Catina Gibson, KoriAnn Strausbaugh, Stephanie Wright. Not Pictured: Zealy Stevenson, Meredith Montelith, Chelsey Montelith, Kayla Sanders.

NOODLES AND MEATBALLS TANGLE

On the night of the big powderpuff game, there was much more happening than just a few girls playing football. It was an exciting night highlighted by the crowning of Tammy Haeu-sler as the first ever Miss Home-lycoming. People of all ages participated in the fun-filled event. The se-nior class sponsored a spa-ghetti dinner in effort to raise money for their senior trip, while the junior cheer-leaders kept the crowd enter-tained and cheered for their teams. It was a hard-fought game, but in the end the NOO-DLES, lead by the seniors, came out victori-ous by a score of 6-0.

THE MEATBALLS — JUNIORS, FRESHMEN, AND SUB-FRESHMEN. Front row (L-R): Coaches Josh Walters and Kyle Stokes. Kneeling: Lacy Harsey, Cassidy Cooper, Wendy Gwynn, Mary Startzman, Hannah Phillips, and Tal-ley Clawson. Standing: Coach Tyler Porter, Naomi Berzley, Brittini Smith, Hall Sprott, Callie Ladd, Kris Klaus, Blair Wright, Reid Patrick, and Brittany Foster.

THE NOODLES — SENIORS, SOPHOMORES, AND SUB-FRESHMEN. Kneeling (L-R): Kent Doty, Heather Tolbert, Jeni Bruce Wilkes, Jennifer Dove, Jenni Caldwell, Kristen Keroson, Lacey Feaster, and Jennifer Atkerson. Standing: Coach Michael Anderson, Katherine Brown, Baetti Smith, Maribeth Cole-man, Frances Ladd, Jamie Pugh, Courtney Melton, Sally Hinnant, coaches Matthew Wilkes, and Jim Edwards.

SENIOR POWER! Decked out in old uniforms and flags, senior captains Maribeth, Courtney, Sally, Jennifer, Frances, Baetti, and Jamie smile before meeting with the referees before the game. All played hard and had fun, while also leading their team to a victory.

REID ON THE RUN. Junior tailback, Reid Patrick loosens up her legs on a run towards the MEATBALL goal line while NOODLE Frances Ladd anticipates her moves. Both teams displayed superb defense, but the NOODLE's defense held the MEATBALLS scoreless.

