

BE A JOYFUL NOISE. Rebecca Timmerman and Kevin McVicker entertain the audience with their musical abilities during the singing of "What Is This?" These talented students added spice to the program.

A CHRISTMAS COTTON TAIL. Trying her best to sing along with the others, Chelsey Monteith is just more interested in the audience. The first graders dressed in animal costumes to symbolize the creatures at the manger.

THE MANGER SCENE. The roles of Mary and Joseph are played by first graders Caroline Bryson and Zachary. The manger scene is always a precious tradition of the Christmas program.

WHAT A RELIEF! Chorus instructor Mrs. Ellen Nicholson is all smiles after putting on another successful Christmas program. Once again, Mrs. Nick and Mrs. Vickie Robinson worked together to coordinate the program.
