

1999 P.T.O. Spring Festival

SPRING FLING

AN ARTIST AT WORK ... Junior Anipa Baytakova paints Pressley Haynes's face at a booth during the festival. Anipa was an exchange student from Kyrgyzstan and was eager to experience the annual festivities.

EAT UP! Third grader Kasey Parris takes a break from the activities to eat with her family. There was a wide variety of food at the festival, from cupcakes and sundaes to hamburgers and hot dogs.

SPLASH! Mr. George Langdale is decked out and ready to be dunked at the popular dunking booth. Mr. Langdale was one of the many RWA staff that participated in this event and needless to say, many students ran out of money at this booth.

STEPPING UP TO THE PLATE ... Chairman of the Board, Dr. Phil Wilkins proudly shows off his long string of tickets to Headmaster Deane Fowble who is anxiously watching from the dunking booth. The dunking booth was the main attraction at the festival.
