

LEADER OF THE BAND. Ms. Laurens Livings directs fourth graders in their "trip around the world" in Ms. Livings put in many long hours preparing the lower school music programs.

CHOO CHOO! Adrian Wilkes plays the part of a steam engine conductor for the fourth grade music program. This program was a world-wide event with songs from numerous foreign countries.

LET'S GIVE THANKS. Dressed as Indians and Pilgrims, these second graders re-enact the first Thanksgiving. They joyfully sang a wide variety of familiar Thanksgiving tunes.

THE WHEELS ON THE BUS. Traditionally the kindergartners entertain their parents and family members on their last day of school. These kids were "Movin' On" as they sang songs about trucks, trains, cars, and buses.

THE ENTERTAINER. Kindergartner Andy Taylor lives up to his name as the crowd is enchanted with his animation and singing ability. All that was missing were his sidekicks Barney and Goober.

LET FREEDOM RING! Tyler McCleary, Tripp Cameron, and Taylor Bell recite a poem of American battles. Under the direction of Ms. Livings and their teachers, the fifth grade sang about the history of the US.
