

FUNNY STUFF. The seniors appear amused at the stories being told during the Class History. They all listened attentively as no one had any idea what Frances was going to say about them prior to her speech.

CHECKIN' IT OUT. J.T. Crossland and Matthew Wilkes are caught by the camera as they examine J.T.'s diploma while the presentation of diplomas continues to take place. Wouldn't you love to hear that conversation?

PROUD PAPA. Mike Good is proud to present his daughter Rita her diploma. Mike and several other alumni parents got this special opportunity as this new RWA tradition began with the Class of '99. Ms. Penny Renwick welcomed the grads into the Alumni Association.

HAPPY OCCASION. Mr. Sam Copeland, former teacher and coach at RWA, returns to witness graduation and congratulate his former students. The graduates were happy that he returned to wish them well and say "goodbye."

A FAMILY AFFAIR. Jennifer Atkerson is flanked by her Brigman grandparents and her parents as they pose for a proud Kodak moment. Many a camera was busy that evening capturing special shots such as this.
