

Frances,

It was on March 9, 1981 that you made your debut,
You had dreams and goals you set out to pursue.

Our firstborn baby girl, then so fragile and small,
From diapers, athletic uniforms, prom dresses, to cap and gown, and all.

These past eighteen years have gone by like a flash.
Now you're ready to venture away from your past.

From the Eagles' nest at RWA you have left you mark,
Now it's Presbyterian College and a career on which to embark.

Countless miles we've traveled to watch you play ball,
And we have truly loved every minute of it all!

A fine athlete and student you've turned out to be,
You've made us so proud as proud can be!

Thanks for the memories. God bless you. Believe in yourself, too,
You're someone unique with no limit to what you can do!

Isalah 40:31

Love always!
Mom and Dad
