I NEED A BREAK! Mrs. Wendy McDonald, Mrs. Barbara Simms, and Mr. Rob Williams take a break as they watch the kids pick up trash. The trash pick-up day was a beneficial time for the students and teachers to help the school.

*Do you have any pet peeves?
If so what are they?*

- Loud boom box radios in cars and trucks
- Vickie Robinson
- Having to fill out questionnaires — Joanne Cooper
- Students wearing their hats backwards at a sporting event or after school — Coach Billy Keels
- People who are always late — Karen Ray
- Excuses — Coach Dennis Stokes
- Interruptions — Robin Hazen
- Math students who don't come prepared with pencils and paper, and journalism students who procrastinate — Martha Ladd

TAKING A BREAK ... Mrs. Judy Ramsey and Mrs. Karen Ray take advantage of some free time while watching the students at play. The staff members enjoyed the opportunities to get outside in the sunshine as much as the students did.
