

RWA Goes All The Way 1999

BREAKING THROUGH. Justin Wilson works hard to get past the would-be tacklers to pick up yardage. Justin's speed and experience helped the team to a very successful season and earned him All-Region, All-State, and All Star honors.

OPEN TARGET. Junior Matt Gilreath finds an opening in the coverage and awaits the oncoming pass. Although quarterback Kyle Stokes was under tremendous pressure, the pass was somehow completed.

WHAT WAY SHOULD I GO? Split end Philip Wilkins fakes right and goes left to pick up a crucial first down against Robert E. Lee. Philip not only excelled in athletics, but also in the classroom and was named to the Bell South All-Academic team.

PLOWING THROUGH THE DEFENSE. All-Region full back Tyler Porter breaks several tacklers on his pursuit towards the goal line. Because of Tyler's size and strength, he was a difficult runner to bring down.

JUST OUT OF REACH. Senior quarterback Kyle Stokes eludes a defender to buy time against Calhoun. Scrambling and experience helped Kyle find receivers throughout the entire season and brought him much post-season recognition.

DEFENSE RULES! Senior linebacker Josh Walters breaks through the line to bring down a Clarendon Hall runner. A variety of different defenses confused opponents throughout the season.

ON THE RUN. Tight end Willy Pope hauls in a pass and sprints to dodge the opposing defender. Willy's efforts combined with a strong team performance, helped lead the Eagles to state championship.
