

Setting The Pace!

BANG! The j.v. volley Eagles intimidate their opponent, the Hammond Skyhawks, as they prepare to begin the match. RWA closed the season at home with a big win over the Skyhawks and posted their best record ever.

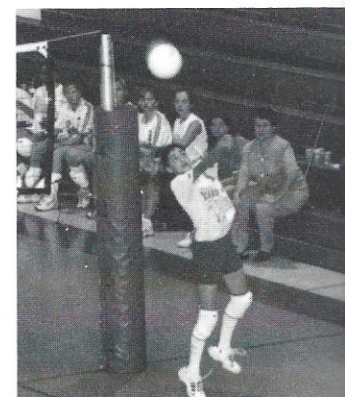

FIRE! Brittany Melvin gets ready to light up the court with one of her blazing hot serves. Brittany's leadership, dedication, and skills were appreciated by both her j.v. and varsity team members.

RIGHT BACK AT YA! The j.v. Eagles answered their opponent with a powerful return. This year's eagle volleyball team developed sisterly bonds with each other both on and off the court.

IN FOCUS. Gillian Simms concentrates on the ball as she passes to one of her nearby teammates. Gillian's ability and talent to move the ball led the team to a overwhelming victory. Gillian's positive attitude could be witnessed by everyone.

SOARING HIGH! Sally McRae relies on her vertical ability to keep the ball in action. As a starter on the j.v. volleyball team, she played a vital role for the Lady Eagles. Her leadership ability was highly beneficial to the young team.
