

Learning The Game

GET UP! Kyle McDaniel reaches over number 21 for the King Knights to get the tip off. Kyle's size gave him an advantage against most of his opponents

LET'S GO GUYS. The junior high girls show their support for the junior high boys team by creating a spirit tunnel for them to run through. This before-game ritual got the boys pumped up for their games.

A LONG TIME OUT. Coach Bill Berzley calls a key time out during their game against King Academy. This was Coach Berzley's fourth year coaching the junior high teams at RWA.

OVER AND IN. Seventh grader Lindsay Parris shoots over her defender from King. Lindsay's quickness contributed greatly to the 99-00 junior high girls' team.

SLOWING IT DOWN. Caroline Ogburn wisely settles the ball and sets the offense. Caroline was a key contributor to the junior high girls' team.

NOTHING BUT NET! Justin Speag nails a free throw in a key moment against the Knights. Spanky became well rounded player through the season.
