

GET CLOSE. Senior Willy Pope chips up to the ninth green during a home match. Willy, one of the veteran golf team members, enjoyed playing on the RWA golf team for six years.

CONCENTRATE. Junior Edmund Yongue pays close attention to a competitor's putt as he examines the green's break on the ninth hole. Edmund loved coming out to the course to use his golf skills.

DREAM TEAM. Jae Mattox, Willy Pope, Matt Gilreath, Justin Wilson, and Adam Williamson take a Kodak moment before teeing off at the state tournament. Even though they didn't play in top form in tourney action, the Eagles had a blast at Fripp Island.

DRIVING FOR DOUGH. Christa Branham tees off on number four during a home match. Christa, the only female member of the '00 golf team, enjoyed her first year as a competitor with the Eagle team.

PLAYING IT SAFE. Senior Justin Wilson plays it safe off the first tee at a home match. When time and weather permitted, Justin was often found out on the golf course practicing to improve his game.
