LISTEN UP, GIRLS. Head Coach Billy Carter gathers the j.v. team in a huddle to hear some words of encouragement and praise for their good play. Although the j.v. season was short, the girls gained valuable experience.

READY, SET ... GO! Coach Herb Rentz leans from the coach's box to give Lindsay Parris some baserunning tips as they both keep an eye on the action at the plate. Coach Rentz volunteered his time to assist these young girls with their softball skills.

BIG THINGS COME IN SMALL PACKAGES. Sixth grader Lewis Frazier doesn't let her size defer her from making a big play on a grounder hit to her. Despite being the youngest and smallest player, Lewis's aggressive softball skills enhanced the J.V. team.

CONCENTRATION. Shortstop Ruthie Phillips takes her turn at the plate in an attempt to get on base. Ruthie always displayed a friendly, but competitive attitude and spirit.

SHE'S SAFE!! Eighth grader Lindsey Hamilton sneaks in the back door to tag the plate and score on a passed ball for the J.V. Eagles. Although this was Lindsey's first year playing for RWA, she got lots of playing time as an outfielder.

THE WINDUP AND PITCH ... Ashley Mills, an eighth grader, stretches out as she winds up to release the pitch. Despite the fact that this was her first year on the team, Ashley soon found her niche on the mound.
