

CONCENTRATION. As a veteran player, senior Reid Patrick shows great concentration on the pitch and swing. Throughout Reid's softball career at RWA, she was consistently one of the team's leading hitters and anchored the team's first base position.

LISTEN UP ... First base coach Herb Rentz gives Morgan Parris some reminders on what to do in each different game situation. Morgan's love for softball showed in her serious approach to the game.

PITCHING ACE. Veteran Wendy Gwynn, one of only two seniors on the team, showed great control as the pitcher while also exhibiting good team leadership. With some extra work required, Wendy made the transition easily from slow pitch to fast pitch.

IN THE READY POSITION. Cassidy Cooper, a sophomore, gets in the ready position at third base as she focuses on the action at home plate. Cassidy's softball skills allowed her to play several different positions during the season, including pitcher.
