

♦TWO OF A KIND. Joey Burroughs and Jarrod Mills model their hunting clothes for Camouflage Day. Their love for hunting enabled them to have a great day dressed comfortably in their favorite outfits.

♦FARMER GAL. Elizabeth Schachner never fails to show her happy face on Farmer's Day. Her plaid flannel shirt, bandanna, and drawn-on freckles helped add to her cute personality.

♦THE BRAID-Y BUNCH. Juniors Rebecca Harpod, Jenni Caldwell, and Kristen Keroson braid others hair for Farmer's Day. Since all three are varsity cheerleaders, they acted as role models and encouraged the younger students to also dress up.

♦HOWDY. Senior Kyle Stokes pauses during break to pose in his farmer apparel. Besides being a three-sport athlete, Kyle somehow found time to participate in the Spirit Week activities.

♦SMILE! Senior Willy Pope sports his straw hat and overalls on Farmer's Day. Because of the participation of many, spirit week, as always, was a tremendous success.
