

WITH EXCITEMENT AND ANTICIPATION ... Last year's Queen Alison Davis and Sweetheart Jenni Caldwell, along with the crown bearers, Mr. Fowble, and Ms. Reid, eagerly await the crowning moments during the homecoming halftime festivities. It was a time filled with anticipation and wonder.

ALL DECKED OUT. Crown bearers Kyle Black and Rebecca Holmes, as well as their parents, can now breathe a sigh of relief as their halftime duties are over. Both of these youngsters are children of RWA alumni, making them special selections for this honor.

PICTURE PERFECT. Dr. Harmon Patrick beams proudly as he escorts daughter Reid to mid-field to receive her homecoming crown. Reid was sponsored by junior football player, Gill Harkins.

FUTURE QUEENS?? Caroline McMeekin, Gracie Glover, and Kasey Parris are caught up in the homecoming halftime excitement. Perhaps they, too, will be future participants in the RWA Homecoming Court.

A PERFECT FIT ... Poised and happy, Reid Patrick graciously accepts the 1999 Homecoming Queen title as Alison places the crown on her head. Reid's charming and friendly personality and wholesome good looks made her an outstanding choice.

A MILLION DOLLAR LOOK ... Ruthie Phillip's surprised expression is remembered as Jenni crowns her as the 1999 Sweetheart. Ruthie was chosen from the Court as the overall winner by vote of the varsity football team members.
