

CHOOSING THE WINNER. The judges, accompanied by auditor Gwen Harden, smile while watching the twelve contestants awe the audience. The judges had a hard job choosing the winner from this group of a dozen beautiful girls.

LET'S HEAR IT, BØYS! Seniors Josh Walters and Kyle Stokes give the audience a good laugh during intermission. Both Josh and Kyle drew much attention with their charming "girlish" figures and moves.

A MEDLEY OF MELODIES. RWA's chorus of boys thrilled the audience with their musical gifts. The boys sacrificed their lunch periods in order to practice hard for this special occasion.

PUTTIN' ON A SHOW. Mistress of Ceremonies, Danyelle Browder, enchants the audience with her beautiful voice during one of the intermissions. Even though it was her first year hosting a Miss RWA pageant, the senior class was happy to have her liveliness around.

THE MAGIC TOUCH. Pianist Janis Jordan provides music for the pageant. Her beautiful melodies helped to put the contestants at ease as they strolled down the runway and into the spotlight.
