

Class Of 2000

Lived It, Learned It, Earned It!

ACCEPTING THE HONOR. Assistant headmaster George Taylor presents the Valedictory medallion to Philip Wilkins. Through hard work and dedication, Philip's determined attitude paid off earning him the top academic honor.

SMILING FACES ... Hall, Reid, Marcy, Blair, and Wendy are all smiles as they gather for a picture just before putting on their caps and gowns. Many special bonds were formed between these girls that will bring lots of happy memories for years to come.

TOP OF THE CLASS. Qualifying as Junior Marshals are Ward Coleman, Matt Gilreath — Head, Stuart Edwards, Jenni Caldwell, Kristen Keroson, Emily Mills, and Kevin Brazell. These seven juniors achieved a GPA of 3.25 or better.

PROUD PARENTS! Dr. and Mrs. Patrick proudly pose with daughter Reid following the graduation ceremony. Reid's many academic and athletic accomplishments while a student at RWA certainly gave her parents many reasons to feel blessed.

CUTTING AN EYE. Classmates Willy Pope and Tyl Porter exchange words and glances as the graduation ceremony proceeds. From the expressions of their faces, wouldn't you just love to know what was said?
