

IS THIS A DREAM? Upon returning to their seats after receiving their diplomas, this group of seniors peeks to make certain of what's inside the cover. After many long years of toil and fun along the way, getting that diploma was a climax of the past 12 years.

THE THREE AMIGOS. Ryan Johnson, Earl Ogburn, and Russ Brown share another happy moment together as they wait for the Baccalaureate service to begin. These three have shared many good times together over the 12 years they've attended RWA.

FOLLOW THE LEADER. Excitement fills Josh Walters, Wendy Gwynn, and Philip Wilkins as they exit the stage following the graduation ceremony. Even the thunderstorm and heavy rain did not damper their spirits or delay the celebrations afterward.

HEXED EMOTION. Perhaps Blair Wright and Jae Cox are sad deep down inside because soon all their classmates will be going their own separate ways, but here they beam with happiness on their graduation night. This special night will be highlighted in their memories forever.

YOU'RE THE BEST! Wendy, as a class officer, gets the honor of presenting Mrs. Ellen Nicholson with a certificate from the Class of 2000. "Miss Nic," as she is so affectionately called, was their top choice for Teacher of the Year.
