

Cancun 2000

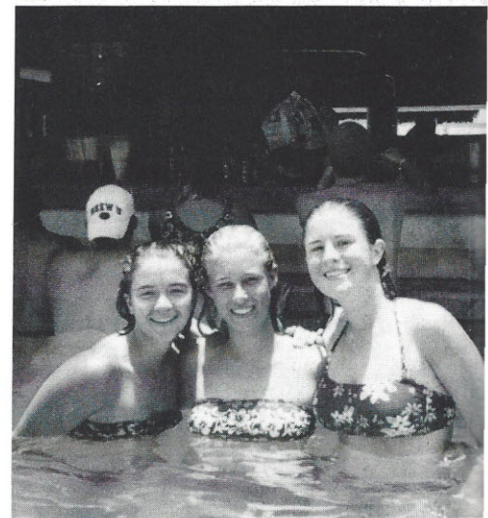

SMILING FACES IN BEAUTIFUL PLACES. These sunburned seniors stop for a quick photo, and take a last glance at this paradise as they get ready to depart for their trip home to Winnsboro. Everyone got plenty of sun while relaxing at the beautiful Cancun Palace in Cancun, Mexico.

SLEEPING MEXICAN. Josh Walters decides to take a quick nap in the airport after a long week in Cancun. Since Cancun is a very lively city at night, most of the seniors got very little sleep on the trip and were ready for a rest when they got home.

SUPPER TIME. Joe Brown and Ryan Johnson grab a quick bite to eat before they head out for the evening. Because the hotel was all inclusive, none of the students went hungry during the trip.

SR. BATHING BEAUTIES. Wendy Gwynn, Ha Sprott, and Reid Patrick pause from all their busy activities to take a quick picture in the refreshing pool. The pool was a popular place for all the teenagers to gather and socialize.

BEACH BUMS. Willy Pope, Russ Brown, Joseph Cook, and Jae Mattox lay on the beach and soak up some sun while admiring the clear blue ocean. The beach's beautiful setting created a relaxing atmosphere to which anyone could enjoy, and the seniors certainly took advantage of it.
