HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU...

As a group effort, the senior fine arts class played the hand bells to celebrate Richard Winn's 35th birthday. After the bells were played, the entire school was treated to cupcakes and drinks supplied by the PTO.

A FAMILY AFFAIR...

"home."

TREE-MENDOUS SUCCESS...

These fellow alumni come together during the weekend celebration to play baseball against the current varsity team. Although the youthful team prevailed, the game was a success in that it gave the Old Timers a chance to shine once more.

FAMILY FUNDING...

As a surprise ending to the weekend's activities, Booster Club president Danny Caldwell presents Lou Ann Coleman with a generous donation towards the Spirit Fund gym floor project. Thanks to Mrs. Coleman and many others, the birthday weekend was a huge success and fun for all.

DIGGIN' DEEP...

RWA supporters dig in at the Shuckin' and Shaggin' oyster roast in celebration of RWA's birthday. Having an oyster roast in order to raise money for the school was a tradition used in the school's very early years of existence.

RWA Spirit. Fund $30,000 5.000 2/17/01 AMOUNT$ 10,000.00 OF RICHARD WINN SPIRIT FUND TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS & NO/100 Robin R. Hazen

ON THE HOT SEAT...

Ms. Reid looks toward former faculty alumni for confirmation of her response to an RWA trivia question during the Who Wants to Be a Millionaire game. This was just one of the events that took place on February 14 marking the official 35th birthday.

PARTY LINE...

Young and old alike join in on the line dancing that was the grand finale event of the weekend celebration. The Shag Dance was a family event that everyone could take part in and enjoy.