

GROUP HUG...

Despite cold temperatures, these high school students always come out to support their friends and schoolmates. Many Friday nights, this group could be found sitting on the hill, cuddling under many layers of blankets.

THREE'S COMPANY...

Class of '99 alums, Michelle Quinn, Frances Ladd, and Baetti Smith, have fun building a mini-pyramid as they rekindle old friendships. This trio was among the many alumni who came back to enjoy the birthday events.

FAMILY BONDING...

Getting pumped up for the Homecoming game, these football players take part in the bonfire festivities. Homecoming Week proved to be very exciting as school spirit soared.

ROYAL FAMILY...

2000 Homecoming Queen Rebecca Harwood and Sweetheart Kristen Keroson smile as the cruise the field aboard the convertible. Because this 35th year marks a milestone in RWA history, many former queens and sweethearts were presented to the crowd during the Homecoming game festivities.

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME...

Many RWA grads, young and young-at-heart, turned out for the basketball games during RWA's 35th celebration weekend. Without the dedication and love for Richard Winn, these events would not have been possible.

BASKETBALL BUDDIES...

Their love for basketball and Richard Winn brought these alumni back to the court to play in the alumni basketball game. These games were some of the many events during the birthday celebration that brought alumni back to the school.
