

KNOCK IT DOWN!

Seventh grader Will Muller knocks down the free throw in a game against Ben Lippen. Will proved to be a bright spot as a starter all season long.

POPPING A THREE!

"Spankdogg" drains a three at a home basketball game against King Academy. Spanky was a threat on the floor from behind the arc and was known for his awesome skill.

LOOKING TO PASS!

Sub-freshman Blake Cook looks to pass against the mighty Hawks of Greenwood Christian. Cook, like his teammates, improved his skills throughout the season.

TAKING CHARGE!

Sophomore sensation Brooks Quinn takes charge and brings the ball down the court. Brooks was the leading scorer for the j.v. boys.

AWAITING THE PASS!

Chester star Tripp Cameron camps out down low waiting for the chance to score. Tripp was a strong asset to the team.

BREAK!

Boyd Brown gets set to pass to one of his j.v. teammates at a home game against Robert E. Lee. The j.v. boys had a tough season, but earned valuable time on the floor.