

GREAT AT THE PLATE!

Sophomore Robbie Huey gets ready to rip a hit against the mighty Ben Lippen Falcons. Huey was the starting catcher and a good bat in the lineup.

DOWN AND READY!

Brenton "Big Juicy" Lyles is ready to make a play at first base. Brenton, only an eighth grader, shared time with Kyle Byrd at this position.

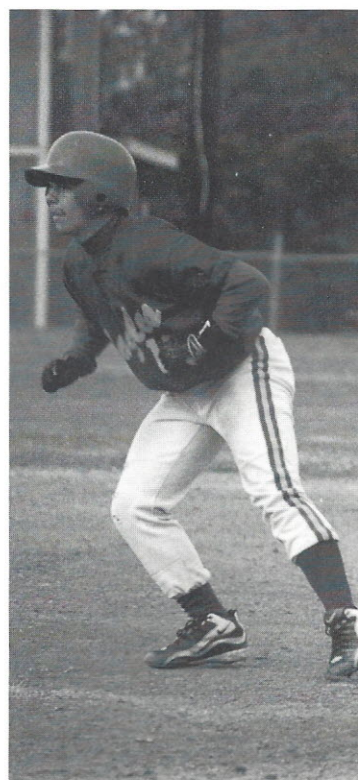

COACHING TIPS

Sophomore Joey Burroughs listens to Coach Rouse as he gives a few words of advice on running the bases. Joey was the centerfielder and batted over .300 in the season.

MAKING THE PLAY!

Sub-freshman Wade Coleman is ready to make the throw across the diamond. Wade was a first year starter at third base and a leading hitter.

GETTING A LEAD!

Josh Allen is anxiously waiting to take second base. Josh was the JV second baseman, and he also spent some time on varsity pinch-running and playing second base.
