

JORDAN AND THE GIANT

Little Jordan Parris and Mac Caldwell concentrate on doing the right motions during the Patty-Cake Polka. The square dance proved to be fun for children and adults of all ages.

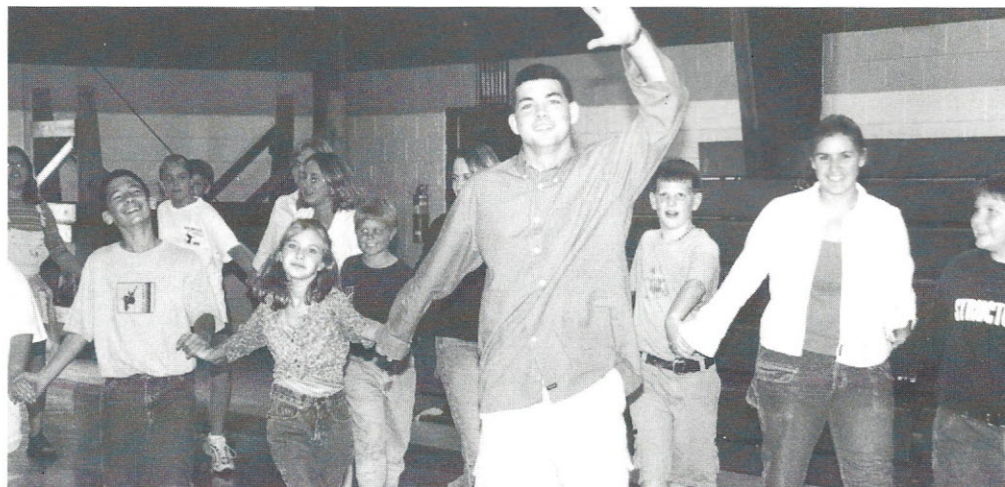

PROMENADE!

Juniors Berry Mattox and Cory Shirley promenade with their partners Kasey Parris and Whitney Benhower. Much fun was had by all who participated in this fun-filled festivity.

SSSSSS...

Sophomore Sam Arnette leads the square dancers into the snake formation. Though too complicated for some, the snake seemed to be one of the favorite dances.

GIVE ME A BREAK!

The juniors goof off after diligently cleaning up after the square dance. This class worked very hard for this occasion and greatly enjoyed this break for a Kodak moment.

LITTLE BOY BLUE....

John Coleman takes a break from all the fun and excitement to watch his older sister and brother on the dance floor. Though tired at the end, the younger children truly seemed to enjoy the festive mood.
