On the night of Saturday, November 4, 2001, the Diamonds faced off against the Pearls at Ruff Field. It proved to be a great battle as the teams were tied heading into the last few minutes of the game. Brittany Foster broke the game open when she returned a kick-off for a touchdown that gave the Diamonds the victory.

KEYSHAWN JENNI!

Jenni Caldwell catches a pass from quarterback Brittany Foster for a long gain against the Pearls. Jenni was the Diamond's primary receiver this year because of her unmatched catching ability.

SENIOR SPIRIT!

These seven seniors join hands before the game to show their senior pride. Their excellent senior leadership helped lead the Diamonds to a victory in this year's Powderpuff game.
