

THREE DAY ADVENTURE ENCOURAGES TEAM BUILDING

ALL TIED UP

Emily Boulware and Courtney Collins practice transferring during the training session for the High Ropes Course. During their camp adventure these eighth graders learned many cooperative skills.

THE WEAKEST LINK?

The object of this team building exercise was to form a five point star without letting go of the rope. Wade, who had emerged as the leader, was blindfolded to encourage input from the weaker links.

ONE BIG HAPPY FAMILY

Twenty-seven happy campers gather for a photo following closing group sessions to bring an end to the fun-filled, fast-paced three day adventure. Many were eager to return home to rest and catch up on sleep.

I THINK I CAN, I THINK I CAN

Ry Foster gives it that extra "umph" to get to the top of the wall climb. Ry and others who attempted this daring feat testified to the difficulty and thrill of this accomplishing this task.
