

SMILING FACES

Kristen, Jenni, and Emily embrace before the Baccalaureate service. These three friends treasured the many memorable moments they've shared as RWA students.

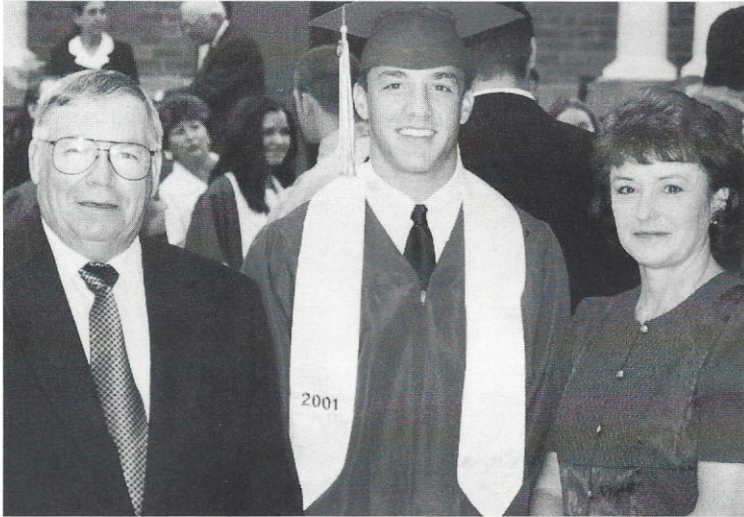

PLEDGING ALLIGIANCE

These four seniors recite the pledge of Allegiance for the last time as Richard Winn students. Logan, Graham, Amber, and Edmund will remember this night as they go their separate ways.

PROUD PARENTS

Billy, Keith, and Jean Carter take a moment to smile for the camera as they celebrate Keith's accomplishments. These were special moments for families as they were filled with many different emotions.

ALMOST THERE

Prior to the commencement exercises, Ward and Kristen line up at the rear of the gym, ready to walk down the center aisle to the stage. This was a moment of both anxiety and excitement for all the grads.

MEMORABLE MOMENT

Senior Thomas Clawson happily accepts his diploma from Chairman of the Board, John McMeekin. After anxiously awaiting to hear his name called, Thomas proudly walked across the stage to receive his diploma.

FRIENDS TO THE END

Happy, eager, and a little bit nervous, Stacey Goode and Jennifer Dove pose for one last photo as seniors. After twelve years of hard work, congratulations were in order for all the graduates.
