

BROTHERHOOD...

The J.V. baseball team takes a break at the close of their successful season to pose as the 2001 Conference Champions. These guys enjoyed the rewarding season due to their closeness and excellent ability to work together.

FOND FAREWELL...

Ms. Reid wishes second grade teacher, Mrs. Mary Jane Wright, a happy retirement after serving on the RWA staff for over 27 years. During her illustrious career, she has instructed over 500 students and made second grade a memorable one for all.

E'ER BE TRUE TO BLUE AND GOLD...

Following commencement exercises, excited seniors toss their caps to celebrate their graduation. After spending many fun-filled years together at RWA, they are finally ready to spread their wings and go their separate ways.

FOREIGN FAMILY TIES...

The Richard Winn family goes beyond our small town to stretch across an ocean. This year the junior class found a friend in German exchange student Mikael Lemao, and as the year ended, farewells were hard, but memories are everlasting. Pictured with Mikael are members of the junior class who attended a farewell cookout at the White Oak Conference Center picnic shelter.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME...

Dorothy, the Cowardly Lion, the Tin Man, and the Scarecrow, portrayed by fourth grade students, walk as family in their presentation of The Wizard of Oz. They represent how many feel about Richard Winn because there really is "no place like home."
