

HOOPS OF FUN

During Field Day, fifth grader Zack Burroughs tries to win the contest by hula-hooping the longest. The hula-hoop event was not only fun for the lower school, but was popular among the high school students as well.

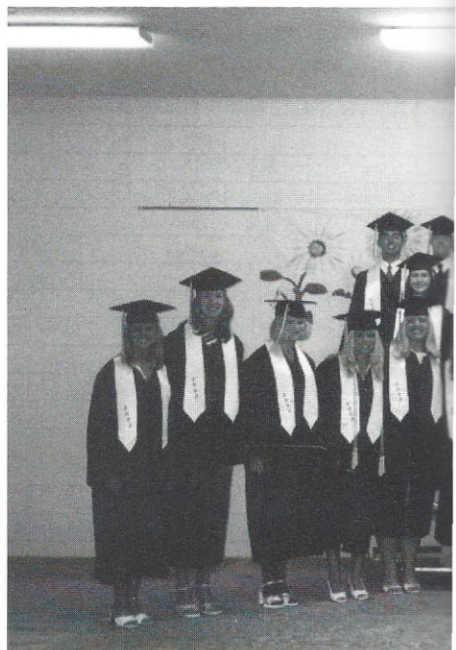

HOMECOMING KING

Ms. Reid parades newly-crowned Homecoming King Justin "Diesel" Swearingen around the gym to show the students. Because of his humor and originality, Diesel was voted Homecoming King by the student body.

SENIOR PRIDE

The Class of 2002 poses for one last picture before graduation. Because this class shared a very close bond, this was an emotional time for many.

TWO OF A KIND

Kindergartners Austin Knox and Austin Costenbader show their homecoming spirit by dressing alike on Twin Day. This day had many participants of all ages.

GLORY DAYS

The 2001-2002 junior varsity girls' basketball team proudly poses for a picture with Coach Spires after winning the 2-AAA conference runner-up title. The team's determination and enthusiasm led them through a successful season.

