

WINTER WONDERLAND

The US flag continues to wave against a silent backdrop of snow. Due to the unexpected weather, students and teachers got to enjoy an extra week of Christmas break to play in the snow.

THERE SHE IS...

Former Miss RWA Jeni-Bruce Wilkes crowns an unsuspecting Elizabeth Schachner as Miss RWA 2002. Because of her friendliness to others, Elizabeth was also voted Miss Congeniality at this year's pageant.

DARE DEVILS

Seniors "D" Dixon and Zack McCorkle take a break from fishing for a quick snack of worms during the senior class camping trip. Because of the antics of these two, everyone was entertained and there was never a dull moment.

LAUNCHING THE BALL

In an effort to win the throwing contest during Field Day, sixth grader Grayson Caulder lets it soar. This was just one of many activities of the outdoor event that allowed the students and teachers a chance to relax and have fun aside from the normal school day routine.

