

Class of 2006

ROCKETS AWAY!

The eighth grade science class watches a model rocket being launched. Mrs. Cooper, their science teacher, assigned several hands-on projects for the students to enjoy.

SHOW YOUR SPIRIT!

The eighth graders display school spirit by wearing blue and gold for a pep rally. Pep rallies were a favorite among students because they were an exciting way to show school pride.