

TAKE IT TO THE HOOPI!

Emily Young, a junior, stays focused as she lines up her free throw attempt. Emily made great strides and contributions as a rookie on the varsity squad.

EAGLE TEAMWORK

Sophomore Ashley Mills attempts to throw a pass to another teammate across the Wardlaw opponent's outstretched arm. Ashley was a newcomer to the Eagles' varsity team and gained valuable experience throughout the season.

A DRIVE BY SHOOTING!

The varsity girls pose for a team picture aboard a State Trooper car. Patrolman Jeff Wade assisted in coaching the girls during their season this year.

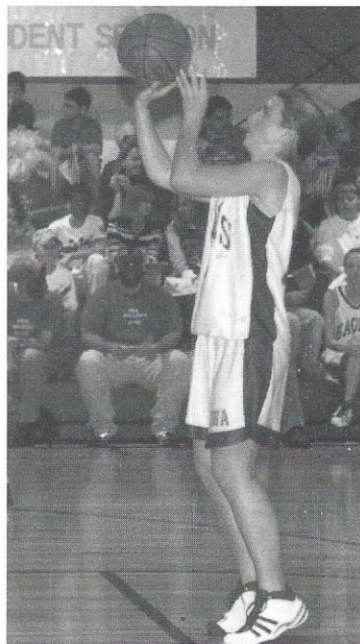

1-2-3 LET'S ROLL!

Callie Ladd, Brittany Foster and Meredith Brown congratulate each other on their game. With the ladies' teamwork and encouragement, the team jelled and grew closer as the season progressed.

CONCENTRATION!

Junior Meredyth Lyles finds a "home" at the free throw line. Meredyth was the most consistent free throw shooter and earned the Free Throw Award for her steady hand, soft touch, and "dead eye."

LAY IT UPI

Ruthie Phillips, sophomore, lays it up for an uncontested 2 points. Ruthie's speed and agility often gave her many fast break basket opportunities.
