

Soccer Team Kicks Their Way To A Successful Season As They... TAKE IT TO THE LIMIT

I GOT IT!

Junior Smith Harden plays the ball around a Camden Military defender. Smith's exceptional soccer skills earned him the title of Most Valuable Player at the season's end.

GIRLS CAN PLAY, TOO!

Hannah Morgan strategically moves the ball downfield against Camden Military. Though Hannah is only a sophomore, her experience and skills made her a great asset to the team.

RUNNING THE SHOW!

Senior Cory Shirley looks downfield as he dribbles the soccer ball toward his teammates during the Westminster Catawba game. Cory's aggressive plays sparked the offense to success.

TOGETHER AS ONE...

Coach Morgan and Coach Atkerson motivate the team while in a half-time huddle. The support, experience, and knowledge of these two coaches helped guide the team to a successful season.

RIISING TO THE OCCASION!

Senior Michael Smith jumps to head a ball in the home game against Calhoun. Michael displayed fearless play all season long and will be greatly missed next year.
