

JV's Experience a Tough Season of... EARNIN' RESPECT

MAKING A STAND

The J.V. Eagles stack the line attempting to make a short yardage stand. The Eagles' defense stepped it up with many critical stops this season.

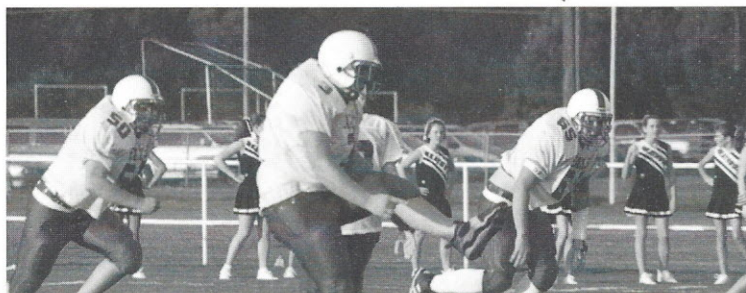

BOBBIN N' WEAVIN'

Seventh grader William Ladd makes a hard cut in front of a Heathwood Hall defender. William proved to be a reliable receiver and tough running back.

ALRIGHT, LISTEN UP!

Assistant Coach Edward Frazier gives Tripp Cameron advice during a game. Coach Frazier's cool-headed advice was very valuable this season.

UHHH AHHH...

Freshman Will Coleman kicks off against Heathwood Hall. Will's strength and versatile skills made him a team leader on both offense and defense.

THE WHOLE GANG!

Despite a tough year, the j.v. team had fun all year long. This photo shows the group "stacking" together through thick and thin.
