

Season Of Success For The... JAMMIN' J.V.'s

BASKETBALL

TALK TO THE HAND!

Seventh grader Lea Allen attempts to block a Wardlaw player during a non-conference game. Lea's love for basketball was a key element of the team's success this season.

BRINGING HOME GLORY

The J.V. girls proudly display their Region 2-AAA runner-up trophy. The girls worked hard throughout the season to achieve success.

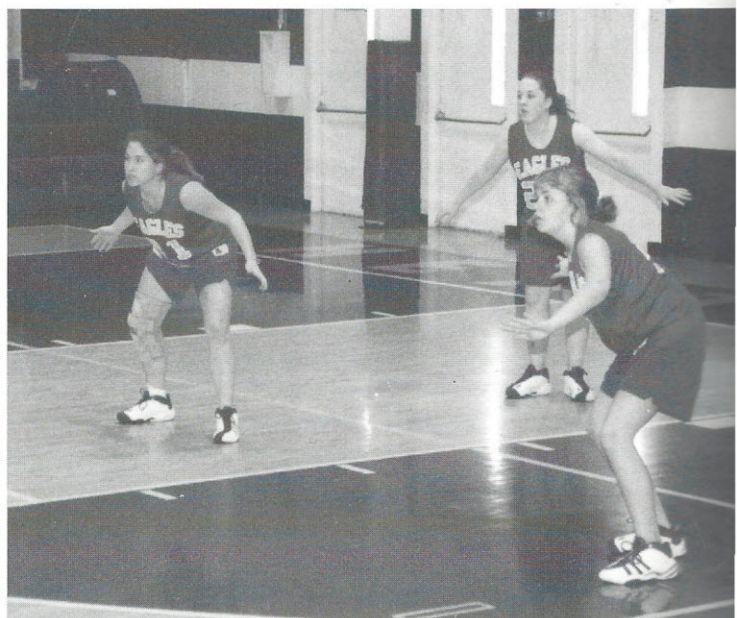

VIEW FROM ABOVE

J.V. girls are hot in action against King Academy. The girls earned the runner-up title with hard work and dedication.

WHAT YA GONNA DO?

Seventh grader Blythe Douglas blocks a Wardlaw player during an away game. Blythe, even as a seventh grader, contributed to the team's success.

UP AND AWAY

Eighth grader Lewis Frazier prepares to put two points on the board against Covenant Christian. Lewis led the team in scoring from the point guard position.

THREE'S COMPANY

Defensive players Brice Porter, J. Wagers, and Carolina Ogburn concentrate on breaking up Heathwood offense. This threesome worked hard on both ends of the court to contribute to the team's success.