

The J.V. Girls Learn That...

DIAMONDS ARE A GIRL'S BEST FRIEND!

JUST ANOTHER STRIKE!

Sub-freshmen pitcher Jill Wagers pitches another strike during a home game. This was Jill's first year as a pitcher, and she learned much about the game.

WAY TO SLING THAT BALL!

Sixth grade pitcher Kasey Parris hurls a strike across the plate. Kasey's eagerness to learn the fast pitch game earned her the Most Improved Player award at the season's end.

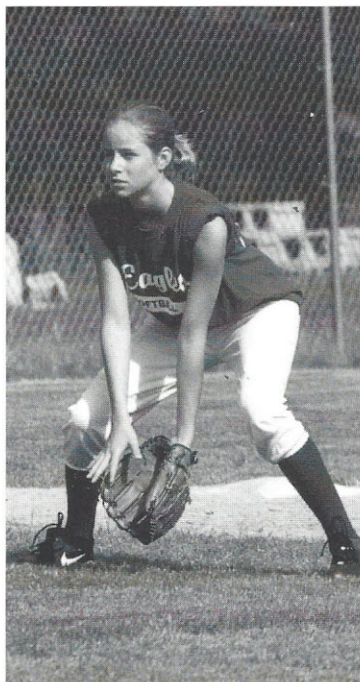

WAY TO SMASH THAT BALL!

Catcher Lea Allen makes contact with the ball in a home game against King Academy. Lea's love for softball was a key in the team's success.

EYE OF AN EAGLE!

Blythe Douglas, a seventh grader, watches and waits on a pitch from the King pitcher. The J.V. team enjoyed the time together despite their losses to much older and more experienced teams.

WAITIN' ON GO!

Third baseman Mary Grace Phillips waits on a ball at third during a home game. Because of her athleticism Mary Grace earned a starting position even though this was her first year on the team.

DISCUSSING THE GAME PLAN!

Catcher Lea Allen and pitcher Jill Wagers talk it over on the mound during a home game. The combination worked well throughout the season.
