

EAGLE EYE

Sophomore Brittany Melvin rushes the ball down the field for a touchdown. Brittany's athletic ability helped her team to a glorious victory.

DEFENSE!

As Brittany Foster runs the ball up the field, Nicole Collins leans in to grab the flag. Nicole and her Stripes teammates' played a super defensive game in halting the Stars running game.

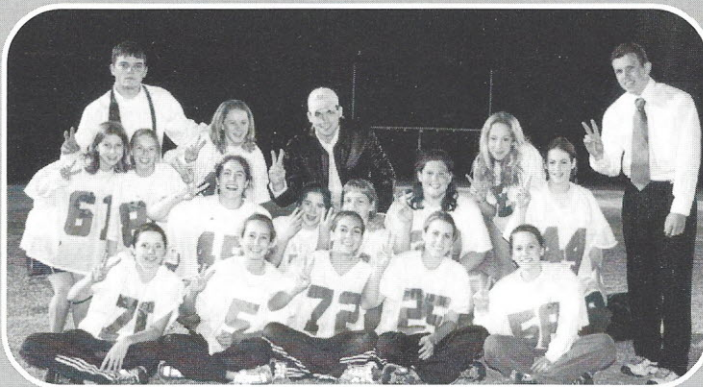

STRIPES "OUTSHINE" THE STARS

STRIPES

Standing: (L-R) Justin Swearingen, Berry Mattox, Elizabeth Schachner, Brandi Medlin, Melissa Walsh, Naomi Berzley, Meredith Brown, Ashley Mills, Ruthie Phillips, Chris Kinard, Mac Caldwell, Paul Atkerson, BJ Mattox, Cory Shirley. Kneeling: Morgan Parris, Cassidy Cooper, Nicole Collins, Brittany Melvin, Caroline Ogburn. Sitting: Callie Ladd, Lacy Harsey

STARS

Standing (L-R) Holly Twitty, Kyle Byrd, Sallie Watford, Lindsay Parris, Sam Arnette, Casey Smith, John Sanders. Kneeling: Brice Porter, Lewis Frazier, Jill Wagers, Allison Coleman, Ashley Matthews. Sitting: Talley Clawson, Brittany Foster, Jeni-Bruce Wilkes, Meredyth Lyles, Brittini Smith

On the night of Tuesday November 20, 2001 the Stripes defeated the Stars at Ruff Field. Both teams came onto the field ready to play for a victory. These girls all proved that football isn't always a guy's sport. The Stripes soared above the Stars with a 26-8 score.

RUN, RUTHIE, RUN!

Ruthie Phillips fakes out Brittini Smith as the Stripes make their way to another touchdown. The Stripes took advantage of the opportunity to run up the score in this group of girls' first win ever.

READY & WILLIN'

This group of senior girls eagerly awaits the chance to show the guys that football is their sport, too. Their enthusiasm and dedication to the game will be hard to replace.