

DO THE HOKIE POKIE...

Mrs. Ray and the kindergartners do the Hokie Pokie for the spellbound grandparent crowd. All in attendance enjoyed the unique morning of singing and dancing.

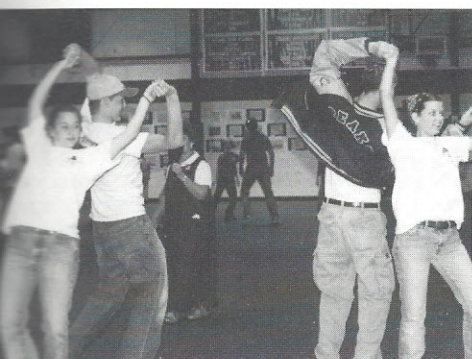

MAY I HAVE THIS DANCE?

Future Richard Winn students Sally Costenbader and Drew Talbert get acquainted during the square dance. This square dance was just one of many they will have an opportunity to attend at RWA.

SLIDE...SLIDE...SLIDE...

Second graders Nic Mills and Katie Smith slide down the lane made by their classmates as they take part in the Virginia Reel. All these youngsters worked hard to learn the different square dances and moves.

THE ROUND UP

As Mrs. Nicholson calls the square dance from center court, the lower school students swing their partners and listen for the next instruction. Mrs. Nicholson worked and practiced with RWA students of all ages in preparing them for this event.

TWISTIN' & TWIRLIN'

Dance partners Brittini Smith and Roe Coleman and Josh Peake and Sonya Walters add a twist and turn to spice up their dance moves. This was a time to show off dance styles and creativity.
