

The Eighth Graders Enjoy Camp Greenville UP ON THE HILLTOP

A MOTLEY CREW. . .

The eighth grade class poses for a quick group picture at Camp Greenville. Students look forward to this annual trip that has become a Richard W. tradition.

YEE HAW!

Taylor Bell and Nancy Frazier bust a move while the rest of the class cheers them on. The square dance was a favorite for these enthusiastic campers.

TRIBAL COUNCIL. . .

A group of eighth graders takes a quick break to discuss their next strategy. Camp Greenville was an excellent place to build cooperation and teamwork among the students.

MOVING ON UP. . .

Eighth grader Lindsay Matthews climbs the rope course at Camp Greenville. This course provided a challenging and unique experience for the campers.
