

RWA Seniors Are... GLAD TO BE GRADS

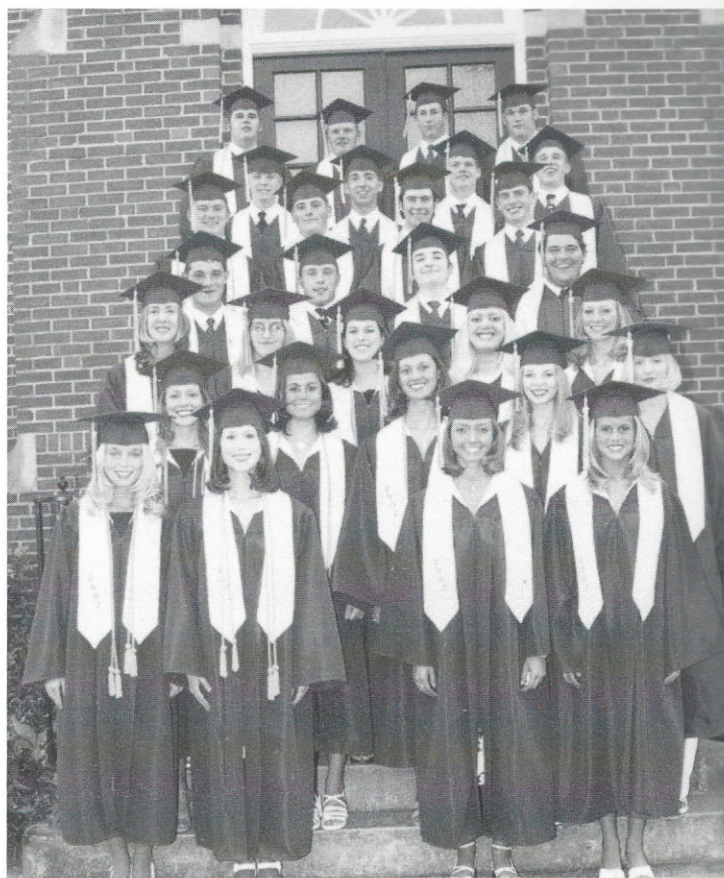

THE THREE AMIGOS!

Russ, "D", and Jarrod pause for yet another picture as they wait for the Baccalaureate service to begin. This time in their lives will etch deeply in their memories of their RWA school days.

ALMOST THERE!

The Class of 2002 takes a brief moment on the ARP Church steps to take a group picture before the service. The seniors had mixed emotions about leaving the "ivied halls" of RWA to venture out into the real world.

BEST BUDS!

Elizabeth, Callie, Lacy, Cassidy, and Naomi gather for their last picture together as RWA students. These five girls have been friends for a long time and will surely miss each other next year.

YES, WE MADE IT!

Edward Frazier proudly flashes his diploma to the crowd of relatives and friends during the graduation recessional. After twelve long years of hard work, all the grads had good reason to be proud of this milestone in their lives.

WATCH THIS!

Michael Smith and Chris Kinard lighten up the mood prior to the Baccalaureate service by chatting while Chris twirls his gold honor cord. Both guys looked forward to the "big day" with great excitement.
