

FRIENDS TO THE END

Ashley Arnette, Emily McLeod, and Katie McFadden beam with happiness as they pose for a Kodak moment. These three seniors shared many great memories together, including this special day.

SAY CHEESE!

It doesn't take much prompting to get Jarrod Mills and Kevin McDaniel to smile for the camera. Clusters of senior friends were found everywhere having last classmate pictures taken.

HATS OFF!

The new grads gather together to toss their mortarboards high into the air in celebration. This action signified their actual end of their RWA school days.

LIKE MOTHER LIKE DAUGHTER

It's a very proud moment for the Ladd family as Mrs. Martha Ladd celebrates with daughter Callie. Callie and her mom feel very special about RWA, their home away from home. Enrolled since her third birthday, Callie is the fourth member of her immediate family to become an alumni.

GREAT JOB, MAC!

Class President Mac Caldwell shakes hands with Assistant Head of School George Taylor after receiving his diploma. As a result of Mac's academic achievements, he was rewarded with several awards and scholarships during the graduation ceremony.
