

& a real ping pong table. To Joe- the ability to be a smooth soccer player. To Sam Arnette- some rubber gloves.

I, Ashley Arnette, do bequeath to Kyle Byrd- the ability to not be annoying. To Rebecca Erizans- the ability to say no when people ask you to do something. To Emily Young- the ability to talk more in Health. To Mary Beth Parker- the ability to not care when people say mean things about you- ignore them. To Robbie Huey- ability to stay country. To Spanky- ability to stay sweet. To Meredyth Lyles- a continuing sense of humor. To Talley- the ability to know a lie from the truth. To Sam Arnette- the power to be the last Arnette at RWA.

I, Nicole Collins, do bequeath to Courtney- my locker, my car, & good luck in all the years to come. To Spanky- a book to keep all of your women's pictures in. To Frances Rutland- pictures of Michael & BJ to put in your locker. To Jarret Palmer- a great big hug from "Macole." To Caroline Bryson- good luck in everything. To the Cheerleaders- my wonderful rhythm for all the dances.

I, "D" Dixon, do bequeath to Josh Allen- my ability to catch Catfish Hunter. To John Sanders- my good luck. To Smith- Gold Bond. To Mary Beth Parker- the shorts. To Roe Coleman- the Van Halen guitar. To Brittany Foster- the ability to control emotions after a loss in basketball. To Meredyth- beads.

I, Edward Frazier, do bequeath to Jim Frazier- my good looks. To Lewis- my basketball skills. To Smith Harden- 3rd period, use it to shave. To Holly Twitty- "Holly back young'n." To Brooks Quinn- my identity. To Taylor Bell- "Bling Bling." To Hannah Morgan- the truth. To Ryan Douglass- some gator boots. To Kyle Brazell- $6.

I, Chris Kinard, do bequeath to my brother- my ability to pick up women. To Sam- the right to keep on keepin' on. To Casey Brazell- my extraordinary lineman's skills, good luck. To Bill- my incredible hair style. To Huey- my dirt track funny car. The Class of 2003- class unity, the gift of gab, best wishes to the small, the tall, & the rest of ya'll.

I, Callie Ladd, do bequeath to Brittni Smith- some imaginary clothes & a shirt cause yours seems to fly off. To Foster & Dean- the Farm House & the Bober. To Brittni, Brittany, & Meredyth- a deck of cards. To Will Muller- my car & room so you can stay at our house whenever you want. To William- my lab "Buck" (only when I'm gone). To Brittany- Melvin- a tape of Golden Girls. To "Andy"- a tape of COPS & my glove (because its long). To John- my pool playing abilities. To the softball team- some earplugs to block out Lil Herbie. To the basketball team- ICY HOT. To FRIDGE- my knee brace, a new partner, & SHANKING ability. To MBP- a picture of THE GIRL. To Adam- a new deer antler. To Max Hazen- my heart, don't break it.

I, Kevin McDaniel, do bequeath to Kyle- a high school career full of great memories. To

Mrs. Hazen- the ability to be the school mom. To Spanky- ability to throw a great curveball. To Brittany M.- great memories from Algebra II. To Mrs. Edwards- the headache of the famous 6th period class. To Sam- sense enough to stay behind your blockers. To Joey B.- my baseball jersey & many more great rides to baseball games. To Josh A.- the work ethic you've always had. To John- the ability to speak like a southerner. To Richard Winn- the best of luck in academics & athletics.

I, Paul Atkerson, do bequeath to Josh Peake- my cell phone with all the numbers. To Robert Mason- my ability to shake people on the basketball court. To Jeni- Bruce- my ASICS. To Will Muller- #9, to Joe Hodges- a new car. To Sarah Burns- the ability to wander Main St.

This document has been duly sworn at, falsely witnessed, signed, sealed, and delivered, and to the best of our ability is false in every sense of the word, but is published as the Last Will and Testament of the Richard Winn Academy Class of 2002.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fifth grade, all of the girls were jealous of Nicole Collins because she was the only girl tall enough to jump up and reach the ceiling. However, all the girls are jealous of Nicole now because she is the only one who can get away with four hair colors in one week. When she is not changing her hair color, Nicole can be found at the tanning bed or fighting with Justin Diesel Swearingen. One day in Economics, Nicole got so mad at Diesel that she literally tackled him and threw a water bottle at him.

When Diesel is not arguing with the girls, he can be found riding around in his home away from home, the Dieso Van. Soon after he got his van, Diesel put a couch and welcome mat in it to make it more inviting. Diesel does not spend much time at home and can often be found either at BJ's or out looking for him.

BJ Mattox once spelled his name wrong on the SAT because he hadn't had to write William since the third grade. BJ will argue with anyone that there are at least fifty-three states. By his calculations, BJ says that Canada and Puerto Rico must be states by now, and he figures that there is at least one that he left out somewhere along the way. BJ is also known for his loud "boom-boom" music. One day on his way back from lunch, BJ's music was so loud that Mrs. Brown's McDonald's cup fell off of her desk. Needless to say, she wasn't very happy.

James Leitner is another of our classmates who loves loud music. Because he is part Italian, James has been nicknamed Freido. James can be found cruising uptown, at the Pig, in Columbia with friends, or on the soccer field.

Although Paul Atkerson has shown us his athletic ability in basketball and football, his love for soccer is most prominent. Paul has been named MVP of the soccer team on several occasions. Paul has had more girlfriends than any other guy in our class and is definitely a ladies' man.

Speaking of ladies, we have had many queens in our class. Ashley Arnette was Miss Sub-Freshman in the eighth grade and then Miss RWA in 2000. Elizabeth Schachner and Stephanie Hughes were both voted Miss Congeniality at this year's pageant. Elizabeth also won Miss RWA this year. Cassidy Cooper was named Prom Queen 2002 by the junior class while Morgan Parris won Homecoming Queen as well as Football Sweetheart this year.

Morgan plays volleyball and is the catcher for the Lady Eagles softball team. When she isn't busy with softball, Morgan hangs out with her three favorite guys Mac, D, and Russ. Morgan was chosen by the seniors as Most Dependable along with Mac Caldwell.

Mac is probably the most opinionated, argumentative person I know. Mac will argue with any teacher and is never wrong. One time, at the high school quiz bowl meet at Wilson Hall, Mac argued with the coach of another team that their answer had been wrong because they answered "Revelations". Mac quickly pointed out to her that there was no book of "Revelations" in the Bible- only Revelation with no "s". Needless to say, the other team still got the point.

Zack McCorkle is also a very opinionated, out-spoken member of our class. Zack is always sure to tell everyone what he thinks whether he is asked or not. Zack has often been able to talk Mr. Micciche out of giving us Calculus homework and can get any teacher off subject with one of his wild stories. He once told us that he was held up at gunpoint on his own front porch. I have yet to figure out if that one was true. Because of his jokes and crazy stories, the senior class chose Zack as Wittiest along with Naomi Berzley.

This year, our chemistry class began to notice a trend about Naomi. Whenever we had a test, she was nowhere to be found. However, when we can find her, she is often fishing with her boyfriend, Adam. When she isn't with Adam, she hangs out with her friends, Nicole, Callie, Elizabeth, Cassidy, and myself. For sixteen years, Naomi has put up with Cassidy's sluggish ways.

Now that Cassidy has her driver's license, she is sure to never break the speed limit although she swears she has exceeded it on the school road on at least two occasions. Although she drives carefully now, she was not always so cautious. One time at the beach, she drove the golf-cart right into the driver's door of my car. She claims the brakes went out, but they seemed to work fine for continued on page 148.....