

FROM THE BEGINNING...

• JUMPING INTO ACTION •

Senior Joe Hodges makes a valiant leap to complete a pass in a neck to neck game against rival Cardinal Newman. This year Joe managed to haul in both the first and last touchdown passes of the season.

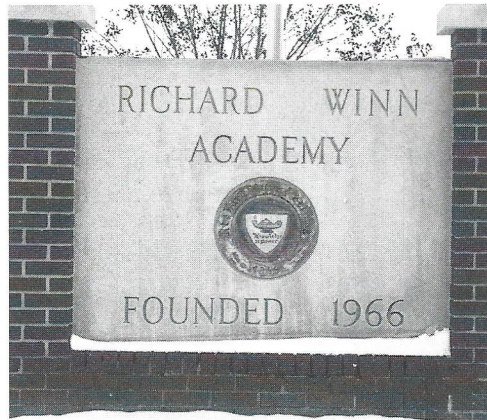

• A SOLEMN SALUTE •

Richard Winn students stand in reverence honoring the symbol of our nation. Patriotic pride stayed strong in the hearts of students and the soul of RWA.

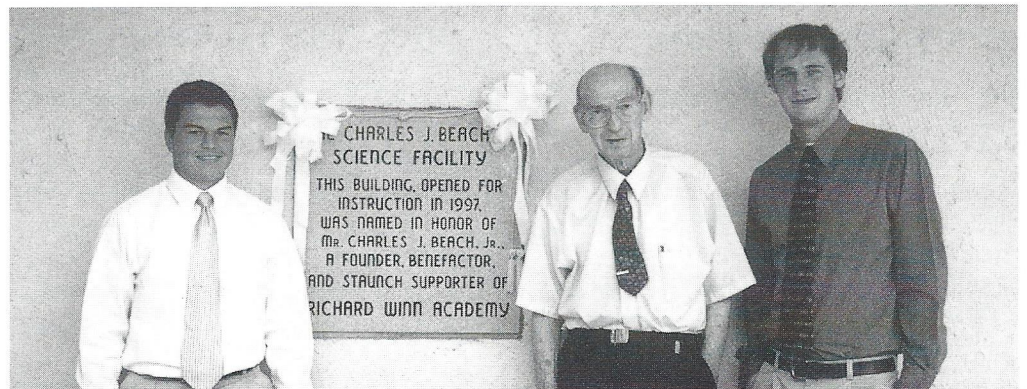

• A SIGN OF ENDURANCE •

Through rain, wind, sleet and snow, RWA not only prevails, but conquers. Richard Winn may have a strong past, but its future is even stronger.

• A WELL DESERVED DEDICATION •

Beta Club President Josh Allen and Student Body President Smith Harden warmly present Charles Beach with an engraved plaque of dedication. Mr. Beach has been a key force in RWA's history and a staunch supporter of its future.

• THE PASSING OF AN HONOR •

Sam Arnette grins from ear to ear while receiving the coveted Stewart Harmon Award from alumnus Randy Fowler, the very first SH Award winner. This award is bestowed upon a student who truly embodies the spirit of Stewart and keeps his memory alive.

